

2020-21 Division of the Arts Academic Affairs Committee

Charge and Policies

Revised 12/22/2020

Welcome to the Division of the Arts Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) for the 2020-21 academic year. We greatly appreciate your willingness to serve on this campus-wide committee charged with providing oversight of the Integrated Arts course subject listing, reviewing new Integrated Arts course requests, reviewing and ranking Interdisciplinary Arts Residency Program (IARP) proposals, and addressing questions related to arts instruction across all departments at UW-Madison.

Membership

The Academic Affairs Committee is comprised of faculty and academic staff representatives from departments with an arts focus, with no more than two from any single department.

Arts department chairs and related programs appoint a representative to the committee who is:

- available to attend all or almost all of the meetings
- familiar with their respective department's academic programs, students, faculty and instructional academic staff, advising, and the processes of curricular review and approval in their college
- able to assess IARP proposals without bias toward the units in their school/college
